

MEET THE CURATOR

FAHIM SOMANI

Fahim Somani, a highly skilled fine artist, sculptor, calligrapher, and curator creates captivating artwork that exudes a profound sense of depth and sophistication. Influenced by Islamic art, he seamlessly weaves intricate geometrical patterns into his sculptures, infusing them with grace and fluidity. Through a harmonious fusion of calligraphy and sculpture with contemporary expressions, Somani's work appeals to a diverse audience, bridging the gap between Eastern and Western artistic styles.

As a curator, Somani expertly shapes artistic narratives, crafting exhibits that delve into the realms of Islamic art, geometry, and spirituality. His artistic journey began in Pakistan and flourished in the United States, where he embraced new opportunities and honed his craft through prestigious programs and courses.

Beyond exhibiting artworks, Somani's curatorial efforts foster cultural exchange and appreciation, showcasing diverse artists and art forms. His talent has garnered international recognition, with commissioned pieces gracing esteemed institutions. Exhibiting at renowned venues and conducting engaging workshops, Somani tirelessly promotes artistic dialogue and inspires viewers across cultural boundaries.
