

PLAN YOUR TRIP

A lot is happening at the Islamic Arts Festival. Plan your visit to make the most of your experience.

The main art display is on the 3rd floor of the Ismaili Center, where you can see a fantastic display of Islamic art from across the country.

The Theater programs and workshops are on the second floor.

Enjoy delicious food at the Food Pavilion located at the Dallas Street entrance.

General Information.

The festival will be held at the Ismaili Center. 2323 Allen Pkwy, Houston, TX 77019.

The opening night Qawwali program is scheduled for 7:30 pm on Friday, the 20th of November

The art display officially opens in the morning of Saturday, the 21st of November.

Festival hours are 10.30 am to 5.30 pm on both November 21 and 22. An evening entertainment program featuring Omar Offendum will be held on Saturday the 21st on the second floor.

Parking

Free visitor parking at the Ismaili Center Houston (2323 Allen Parkway) is available on-site in an underground garage at no charge. Enter through the gates on West Dallas Street (near 2290 West Dallas St) or Montrose Boulevard, follow the signs to the underground garage, and park on either LL1 or LL2. Enter through the glass doors and take the elevators to “1”.

If the car park is full, overflow parking is available at a nearby location.

For out-of-town visitors.

Weather: Houston weather can be unpredictable, but temperatures usually range from 55 to 70°F in mid-November. A light jacket is recommended. It becomes dark by 5:30 PM.

Accommodation: The following hotels are conveniently located 6-12 minutes' drive from the venue. Uber is the best way to travel.

Courtyard by Marriott Houston Heights/I-10

3220 Katy Fwy, Houston, TX 77007

Holiday Inn Express & Suites Houston - Downtown North

3401 North Main, Houston, TX 77009, United States